

Strategy Plus: You Know What...?

1. Meaning and Use

We use 'You know what...?' to introduce a comment, opinion, feeling, or reaction before we say it. It makes conversations sound natural and spoken.

2. Structure

- Pattern 1: You know what + subject + verb?
- Example: You know what I hate? Loud advertisements.
- Example: You know what scares me? Horror movies.
- Pattern 2: You know what's + adjective?
- Example: You know what's amazing? How fast technology changes.
- Example: You know what's annoying? Slow internet connection.

3. Using 'Which' for Extra Information

We use 'which' to add extra information about a whole idea. It comments on the whole sentence before it.

- The trailer looked exciting, which was fun.
- The DVD stopped in the middle, which was frustrating.
- People still go to theaters, which isn't surprising.

4. Practice 1 – Complete the Sentences

- 1. You know what I hate? _____
- 2. You know what's amazing? _____
- 3. You know what scares me? _____
- 4. You know what's annoying? _____
- 5. You know what I love? _____

5. Practice 2 – Choose the Correct Option

- 1. The movie was three hours long, which was (exciting / too long).
- 2. The DVD stopped suddenly, which was (funny / frustrating).
- 3. The trailer looked great, which was (surprising / boring).
- 4. He told me the ending, which was (interesting / annoying).

6. Speaking Practice

- You know what I hate about online movies?
- You know what's great about movie theaters?
- You know what gets me?
- You know what's funny?

End of Lesson – Practice speaking naturally!