

Phrasal Verbs with English Definitions

set out to start a journey or begin doing something

give up

to stop trying to do something

watch out to be careful or pay attention to danger

grow up

to become an adult

keep on to continue doing something

run out of

to have no more of something

put up with

to accept something unpleasant or annoying break down to stop working (for a machine) or to lose control emotionally (for a person)