

PART A – GRAMMAR: WISH AND HOPE (WISH)

1. I wish earthquakes didn't happen (not happen).
2. She wishes the wildfire hadn't destroyed (not destroy) her house last year.
3. We wish there were (be) less pollution in our city.
4. He wishes the flood hadn't occurred (not occur) last month.
5. They wish people took (take) climate change more seriously.

PART A – GRAMMAR: HOPE

1. I hope we have (have) better weather tomorrow.
2. She hopes there will be (be) no more earthquakes this year.
3. We hope the government will help (help) the affected families.
4. They hope the wildfire will stop (stop) soon.
5. I hope people will learn (learn) more about disaster preparedness.

PART A – GRAMMAR: CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER

1. I wish (wish / hope) last year's flood hadn't happened.
2. I hope (wish / hope) there is no earthquake tomorrow.
3. We hope (wish / hope) people recycle more in the future.
4. She wishes (wishes / hopes) she had prepared better for the storm.
5. I wish (wish / hope) droughts didn't affect so many people.

PART B – WRITING

Write 6–8 sentences about a natural disaster. Use at least TWO disaster vocabulary words, ONE sentence with wish, and ONE sentence with hope.

Last year a big flood hit our city. It rained heavily for many days. The water covered all the streets quickly. This disaster destroyed many beautiful homes. I wish this bad event didn't happen I hope we can build safer cities in the future

PART D – PRONUNCIATION: EMPHASIS TO EXPRESS MEANING

Read the sentences. Type the word that should be emphasized in the field below.

1. You don't like earthquakes? Earthquakes

2. Actually, I don't like hurricanes. Hurricanes

3. My brother likes storms, but I don't. Don't

4. I hope there are no floods this year. No

5. I wish last year's wildfire hadn't happened. Last year's

One sentence with "wish":

i wish i could do more exersice

One sentence with "hope":

I hope France will win the World Cup
