SECTION C — READING COMPREHENSION (20 points)

Read the passage carefully and answer all the questions.

A City That Is Changing

Over the past ten years, Brookdale has changed considerably. It used to be a quiet town with a small population, few apartment buildings, and very little traffic. Today, more people are moving there because new businesses have opened and public transportation has improved. The city is also building bicycle lanes and creating green spaces to make neighborhoods healthier and more comfortable.

However, change has brought some problems. Rents have increased, and some residents say that the town is becoming too expensive for young families. Last year, the local government started a project to turn an empty industrial building into a community center. While workers were repairing the roof, they discovered an old photograph of the town. It showed how different Brookdale looked fifty years ago.

Many residents have already visited the new center, and volunteers are organizing activities there. The project has not solved every problem, but it has given people a place to meet, learn new skills, and communicate with their neighbors. By the time the center opened, the volunteers had prepared several workshops. The mayor believes that if residents continue working together, Brookdale will become an even better place to live.

Part 1. Choose the best answer. (5 × 2 = 10 points)

42. Why are more people moving to Brookdale?
(A) Food is cheaper. (B) New businesses have opened and transportation has improved. (C) The population is decreasing. (D) There are fewer homes.

43. What is the city doing to improve neighborhoods?
(A) Closing public parks. (B) Building more factories. (C) Creating bicycle lanes and green spaces. (D) Removing public transportation.

44. What did workers discover during the renovation?
(A) An old photograph. (B) A new library. (C) A collection of food. (D) A bicycle.

45. What had volunteers done before the center opened?
(A) They had moved away. (B) They had prepared workshops. (C) They had sold the building. (D) They had stopped the project.

46. What is the main idea of the passage?
(A) A town is changing and residents are responding to new opportunities and problems. (B) All cities should become larger. (C) Community centers are too expensive. (D) Old buildings should never be repaired.

Part 2. Answer in complete sentences. (5 × 2 = 10 points)

47. Mention TWO changes Brookdale has experienced in the last ten years.
